Research Reports, Publications and Presentations, 2009-10
Center on Globalization, Governance & Competitiveness (CGGC),
Duke University, http://www.cggc.duke.edu/

CGGC Research Reports

CORFO (Corporación de Fomento de la Producción), Chile

Environmental Defense Fund (EDF)

Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation

Inter-American Development Bank

Venice International University (VIU)

World Bank

World Health Organization

Publications

2010  “Global Production Networks and Decent Work in India and China: Evidence from the Apparel, Automotive, and Information Technology Industries” (Gary Gereffi and Esra Guler). Pp. 103-126 in Anne Posthuma and Dev Nathan (eds.), Labour in Global Production Networks in India. New Delhi: Oxford University Press.

Presentations (by Gary Gereffi and CGGC-Affiliated Researchers)

“The Triple Bottom Line of Sustainable Development: Toward a Framework for Economic, Social and Environmental Sustainability in China” (Gary Gereffi). Development@Manchester Lecture for launch of DFID research project on “Capturing the Gains: Economic and Social Upgrading in Global Production Networks.” University of Manchester, UK, December 8, 2009.

“Reinventing Competitiveness in a Carbon-Constrained World” (Nicole St. Clair Knobloch, in partnership with Gary Gereffi and Marcy Lowe). Towards a North American Carbon Market, one-day seminar organized by the Center for Dialogue and Analysis on North America (CEDAN), Universidad Tecnológico de Monterrey (Mexico City campus) and other sponsors. Washington, DC, June 19, 2009.

“New Trends and Challenges of Participating in Global Production Networks” (Gary Gereffi). Keynote address at international research seminar on “Economic Development and Decent Work in Global Production: Crisis or Opportunities for Brazil?” Co-sponsored by the International Labor Organization, the National Bank for Economic and Social Development (BNDES), the Institute for Applied Economic Research (IPEA), and the University of Manchester. Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, April 27-28, 2009.

“The Triple Bottom Line of Industrial Development: Toward a Framework for Economic, Social, and Environmental Sustainability” (Gary Gereffi). Keynote address at conference on “Sustainable Industrial Development in China: Competitiveness Buildup and Environmental Challenges.” School of Management, Fudan University, Shanghai, China. April 16, 2009.

Last updated: March 17, 2010