

Political Economy at Crotty Hall

Ushering in the New,
Remembering
the Old

A Conference for Faculty, Students, Alumni, and Friends of UMass Economics

Friday & Saturday, April 28–29 Starting at 8:00am

Crotty Hall and Gordon Hall, 412 – 418 N. Pleasant Street, Amherst

Crotty Hall, the new home of the UMass Department of Economics, was officially opened on March 22, 2017. Named in honor of Pam Crotty and Emeritus Professor of Economics Jim Crotty, Crotty Hall and its neighbor, Gordon Hall, create the new Economics/PERI campus at UMass. The conference celebrates this new stage in the life of UMass political economy.

---

Plenary Sessions & Concurrent Panels Including:

Celebrating UMass Economics' New Home: Crotty Hall

Progressive Economics in the Age of Trump

Varieties of Political Economy at UMass

UMass Economics and PERI: Looking Ahead

---

UMASS
AMHERST
Economics

For information send message to:
conference@econs.umass.edu

POLITICAL ECONOMY RESEARCH INSTITUTE
PERI
University of Massachusetts Amherst